for School LUNCHES

... In the BIG One-Pound Jar!

sellophane protect the goodness and flavor of Mann's Potato Chips.

See the chips before you buy ... and you'll

seys "Yeah, Menn!"

Experienced Advertisers Prefer The Star formerly ruled successively by Spanish, Germans and Japanese. Twice as Fresh! Twice as Tasty Not one but two layers of transparent

Conductor Blames Reds for Loss of Job

By the Associated Press
PRAGUE, April 1.—Walter Ducloux, young American conductor, said yesterday that the new Communist direction of art has squeezed him out of musical affairs in Czech-

A war veteran who rolled into Czechoslovakia in an American tank in 1945, Mr. Ducloux has been dismissed as director of the State Opera House at Bruenn.

The post is regarded the second best musical position in the country. It is surpassed in prestige only by that of director of music of the National Theater in Prague.

"Something had to come to a head, either resignation or dismissal," Mr. Ducloux said. "I got the blue slip -which means out-and I was given to understand that it would be preposterous to have an American, specially one so familiar to Czechoslovaks in an American uniform, in such a distinguished position."

Mr. Ducloux received the Bruenn appointment in February, with a contract full of political reservations. "It was understood that I could participate in no artistic activity with a political aspect," he said. "I was free to refuse to have anything to do with such an affair, for instance, a benefit for Markos Greece.

"This was agreeable to the authorities in charge before the recent government crisis. But the action committee now in charge of the Bruenn State Opera House consists of the bull fiddle player and two stage hands. It doesn't want an American director." Mr. Ducloux was a tank-driving lieutenant of the 8th Armored Division who arrived in Pilsen with medals of French Gen. Le Clerc on his uniform. He returned to America, but came back to conduct many orchestras. Critics were en-

Mr Ducloux and his wife, Jeanne Rifino, of Dunellen, N. J., are leav-ing tonight for Paris, where he will become musical director of a ballet which will tour France, Spain and

Mrs. Teates, Revenue Aide 30 Years, Retires

Mrs. Rosanne Teates, 70, of 1642 U street S.E., retired yesterday after more than 30 years of service with the Internal Revenue Bureau. Since about 1925, Mrs. Teates has trained a large number of young women from the bureau's stenographic pool.

W. T. Sherwood, assistant commissioner of internal revenue, presented Mrs. Teates with a watch, pocketbook, flowers and $150 in War Bonds in behalf of her associates. She also received a testimonial scroll inscribed with the names of 627 co-workers.

Mrs. Teates lives with one of her three daughters, Miss Ruth R.

Sumatran Palm Oil Revives

Suit Here Opens Problem Of Diplomatic Immunity

A problem revolving around diplomatic immunity is facing District filed there yesterday. The suit was brought by the Walton Rice Mill, Inc., of Stuttgart, Ark., and asks the court to order W. Bruce Matthews, United States marshal for the District, to serve a summons on the Royal Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in connection with a breach of contract suit filed on March 24.

The breach of contract suit filed last week named as defendants Saudi Arabia, John F. Coneybear, former commercial attache of that tional Corp. It asks $110,880 dam- prevents him from serving the na- Gas Rate Rise Approved ages for alleged failure to go tion itself. through with an agreement to purchase 3.000 tons of rice.

Mr. Matthews, when informed of yesterday's suit against him, said At Czech Opera House court in connection with a suit the other two defendants have been dwellings for farm and industrial served but that diplomatic immunity workers, in the 1947-48 fiscal year

FEATURED!

QUICK-FROZEN

CUTS & TIPS DELICIOUS

Asparagus Fruit Cup
12 OZ. PACKAGES

Distributed by

Washington Frosted Foods

EXecutive 5606

Venezuela's Banco Obrero will

Walton Rice Mill, Inc., is rep-resented by Attorney Cornelius H. The State Corporation Commission to become effective today.

RICHMOND, Va. April 1 (P) .- increases, and ordered the new rates

Make him a piehis favorite kind! IT'S SO EASY NOW

What's the favorite pie in your house?-Cherry? Banana cream? Apple? Raisin? Strawberry? Chocolate? Lemon meringue? Peach? You can make it so easy, so quick with the new Pillsbury Pie Crust Mix. Just add water. Tender, flaky crust every time. Use your own filling recipe or one of Ann Pillsbury's favorites, right on the package. Do it today!

illsbu Pie Crust Nine full ounces - ample for

Pillsbury

NOW you can enjoy

You tasted it in KELLOGG'S VARIETY

Here's that same taste-thrilling new cereal that has been an exciting find in Kellogg's Variety. Thousands of you have been asking for MORE! And now your grocer has it . . . flavorful, crispy Corn-Soya in full-size packages. Get some today.

the Twin-Treat breakfast

There's never been anything like Corn-Soya before! With a tempting, toasty new taste, It's a delicious blending of Corn, for flavor and food energy, and Soya for body-building nourishment. It's ready-to-eat, helps give your family the zest they need for a day at work or play. It has vitamins and minerals . . . and the protein value of one ounce of Corn-Soya, in four ounces of milk, equals that of one egg and three slices of bacon.

MET WEIGHT - MIRON MILLED COM AND SOYA, WITH SUGAR, SALT AND MALT FLAVORING . 8 OUNCES MADE BY RELLOGG COMPANY, BATTLE CREEK, MICHIGAN

> It's making Taste History! All over the country, wherever Kellogg's Corn-Soya has been introduced, it has been a cereal sensation, delighting children and grown folks alike. The newest member of the Kellogg family, it's the result of 20 years of work and experiment to get just the right combination of tastiness and nourishment . . . because, when Kellogg's introduces a cereal, it has to be good!